FALL 2019 NEWSLETTER

Dear ,

Fall greetings from all of us at the Music Learning Center! This issue of our newsletter contains important information about our upcoming recital weekend, as well as several other reminders and upcoming dates to add to your calendar. Below you will find a link to the page containing your teacher's recital section date and time. Please be sure to review the "Parent's Guide to MLC Recitals" that you will also find via the link in the article below.

We thank you for being a part of the Music Learning Center!

Musically Yours,
Jeff McGill, Director

Fall Recital Weekend

Saturday November 23rd - Sunday November 24th

Our students and teachers have been busy preparing for the Music Learning Center's annual Fall Recital Weekend! If you or your child are participating, click on the following link to see your recital section's date and time (listed by teacher). Note: Voice students who will be using a microphone, and all guitar students, are invited to a "Sound Check". Please note the time you should be present for a your section's "Sound Check".

2019 Fall Recital Sections

Please review our Parent's Guide to MLC's Recitals which contains suggestions about student preparation, audience attendance and many other important details.

Each of the recital weekend's sections will feature a wide variety of instruments and musical styles. From piano to voice...guitar to violin...from classical to pop and jazz...plus everything in between! Our performers range from age four to adult, and are from beginner to advanced levels. Our recitals are FREE and open to the public, so please invite all of your family and friends.

Location:

Danbury Music Centre's Marian Anderson Recital Hall,
256 Main Street at the corner of Library Place.

There is a parking garage directly behind the Centre on Library Place. Elevator access to the 2nd floor recital hall is available from the rear entrance.

Announcing MLC's Group Makeup Class & Workshop Series!

Throughout the year MLC presents a series of group classes and workshops on a variety of musical topics such as music theory, recital preparation, song-writing, music software and more. Students who notified the office in advance that they must miss their regularly scheduled lesson, and are unable to reschedule that lesson with their instructor within the next 30 days, may attend the next scheduled Group Makeup Class instead. (Note: Students without a "Reschedule Pending" lesson are also welcome to attend for a per class fee $40). Based upon each class's enrollment, separate sections may be offered for different age groups. Please ask the MLC Office for additional information.

Our Next Group Class is ....

"What is this Thing Called Jazz?!"

Taught by MLC Director, Jeff McGill

Friday, November 15th from 4:30 - 5:15pm

Join MLC Director Jeff McGill for a fun introduction to jazz and improvisation. Students of all levels will listen to examples of different jazz styles, learn a Blues Scale and have the opportunity to join in on a Jam Session along with Jeff and student volunteers.

Signup deadline: Tuesday, November 12th

Notes & Reminders...

Lesson Absences & Rescheduling - Please remember that the MLC Office must be notified by 12:00pm* the day of your lesson in order to request a rescheduled lesson.

* For Saturday Lessons the MLC Office must be notified by 5:30pm Fridays.

For all of the details concerning student absences and MLC holiday closings**, please refer to "Policies & Information" that you received when you registered...or you may click HERE.

** MLC does not follow the Danbury public school system's holiday closing schedule. Please refer to MLC POLICIES for a complete list of all dates when MLC is closed.

Student Drop Off and Pick up - MLC POLICIES require that parents bring their child into the waiting area when arriving for a lesson, and wait with them until the instructor arrives at the appointed time. Parents are also asked to be in the waiting area promptly at the conclusion of the lesson. Please do not have your child wait at the top of the stairs or outside. Thank you for your cooperation.
