Danbury Concert Chorus: America Sings!

Date: October 26th , 2024

Time: 4:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Place: First Congregational Church of Danbury

164 Deer Hill Avenue
Danbury, CT 06810

This concert will feature works by American composers. On the program will be the well-known and endearing work by Randall Thompson, "Frostiana", which sets seven poems by Robert Frost to music. Emma Lou Diemer, who recently passed away, wrote "Three Madrigals", a work set to three Shakespearean texts. To round out the program, the chorus will sing two works by groundbreaking composer Florence Price, "Praise the Lord" and “Resignation”, Ola Gjeilo’s haunting setting of “Ubi Caritas, and Morten Lauridsen’s “Sure on this Shining Night” and “Dirait-on!” Organist Joshua Ehlebracht will perform a special prelude as a part of the concert which begins at 4 pm.

Admission is free. Donations will be gratefully accepted at the door.

DMC Community Band: Shall We Dance?

Date: November 1st, 2024

Time: 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Place: Danbury Music Centre

256 Main Street

Danbury, CT 06810

Music and dance have always been connected throughout the ages. The DMC Community Band will celebrate dance and music with a concert including, A Copland Portrait, featuring episodes from Aaron Copland’s Rodeo, Appalachian Spring, and El Salón México. Ravel’s famous Pavane will be followed by Leroy Anderson’s ever-popular Blue Tango. Familiar selections from the ballet The Nutcracker Suite will also be performed, followed by Symphonic Dance #3 by Clifton Williams, depicting the pageantry of a Latin American celebration with street bands, bullfights, and, of course, exuberant dancing. As a tribute to swing dancing, which swept across the United States from 1935 until the mid-1940s, the band will conclude with Benny Goodman: The King of Swing.

Admission is free. Donations will be gratefully accepted at the door.

Parking is available On Main Street or in the Bardo Parking Garage directly behind the DMC on Library Place.

STUDENT NEWS!

Congratulations to Isabella Valenzuela

The Music Learning Center likes to recognize the accomplishments of students in our monthly newsletters. As part of the Y.A.L.L. Project (Youth Academy for Latinx Leaders) our student Isabella Valenzuela recently performed for the Global Health Award Dinner Program.

Has your music student achieved an accomplishment that you would like to share with us?

We would love to hear from. Send Us a Note.
